MESSAGE FROM FOUNDING PARTNER

Welcome to Caldwell Greene Legal Practitioners PRUC
This firm was established with a clear purpose: to provide structured legal counsel that delivers clarity, certainty, and finality in an increasingly complex legal and commercial environment.

Our practice is built on strategic thinking, and a deep respect for the traditions of the law, complemented by global perspective and modern advisory standards. Whether advising families, businesses, or institutions, our objective remains consistent; to protect value, manage risk, and bring matters to effective resolution.

Our tagline, “Dispute Resolved,” is not a slogan. It is a commitment. A commitment to clarity over confusion, closure over prolongation, and outcomes that allow our clients to move forward with confidence.

As you engage with our firm, you will encounter a team committed to discretion, precision, and partnership. We are deliberate in our approach and outcome-driven in our execution.

Thank you for taking the time to learn about Caldwell Greene Legal Practitioners. We look forward to building trusted relationships and serving as your legal partners of choice.

Yours in Service,
Prince Caldwell Kojo Tabiri

Vision & Tagline

VISION

To become a dispute resolution institution of enduring relevance, recognized for professional discipline, legal integrity, and strategic capability in addressing contemporary legal challenges.

We are committed to positioning alternative dispute resolution mechanisms, including arbitration and mediation, as integral components of our legal practice, ensuring that clients benefit from efficient, cost-effective and forward-looking pathways to resolve conflict and preserve commercial relationships.

TAGLINE

At Caldwell Greene, we believe that every dispute presents an opportunity for resolution.

Our Tagline, “Dispute Resolved”, reflects our core promise to deliver clarity, closure, and outcomes that allow individuals, businesses, and institutions to move forward with confidence.

In a world where disputes can drain time, resources and relationships, Caldwell Greene positions itself as a firm that brings matters to an effective end – Dispute RESOLVED!

THE FIRM

The name Caldwell Greene reflects a blend of tradition and professional distinction drawn from the stylistic tradition of Anglo-Scottish legal nomenclature. Its selection is however intentional: Caldwell, the dormant middle name of the head & founding partner, represents the serenity of coldspring waters, offering a calm and refreshing perspective. Greene, embodies the essence of growth and vitality, driving us toward innovative solutions. Together, we create a harmonious balance that fosters success and nurtures relationships. We see it not merely as an identity, but as a promise of principled service.

Rooted in the heart of Ga land and grounded in the values of gratitude, trust, and principled advocacy, Shidaa Chambers is a modern legal chamber built on a legacy of service. Our name, “Shidaa”, drawn from the Ga word for gratitude, embodies our conscious focus on what one has rather than what one lacks and a feeling of appreciation and thankfulness for the positive things in life. We believe that the practice of law is a calling of responsibility and honour, and we deliver our services with professional discipline, cultural sensitivity, and strategic foresight. Shidaa Chambers operates as the litigation and advocacy arm under Caldwell Greene, drawing on a shared institutional ethos while maintaining its own distinctive identity in courtroom representation and dispute resolution.

MEET THE PARTNERS

Partner (Founder & Head) - Prince Caldwell Kojo Tabiri

Kojo's legal profession is focused on dispute resolution and advocacy across international commercial systems. He has gone through numerous cross-border arbitration training and workshops through the American Bar Association's International Law Section and the American Arbitration Association's International Centre for Dispute Resolution.

He continues to build expertise in complex disputes, institutional reform, and equitable justice delivery in emerging markets. His academic and professional background bridges legal strategy, advocacy training, and systemic development in both public and private sectors. In his few years of practice, Kojo has represented clients both domestically and internationally in Commercial Disputes, Land Disputes, Family Disputes, and Immigration Disputes.

Kojo is an associate of the International Centre for Dispute Resolution (USA) Young & International Group, a member of the Institute for Transnational Arbitration (Young ITA), under the Centre for American and International Law (CAIL), and also an Associate Member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators (CIArb Ghana & Canada branches).

He holds a Bachelor of Arts Degree from the Kwame Nkrumah University of Science & Technology, Kumasi, a Bachelor of Laws Degree from the Ghana Institute of Management and Public Administration, GIMPA - Accra, and a Qualifying Law Certificate (QLC) from the Ghana School of Law, Accra. He further holds a Certificate of Qualification from the Federation of Law Societies of Canada and was named one of only fifteen fellows in the 2025 American Arbitration Association's Judge Higginbotham Fellowship Program in International Arbitration and Mediation in New York, USA.

As a seasoned writer, Kojo is a publisher for the Social Science Research Network (SSRN), an open-access research platform. He is a contributor for the Turkish Arbitration Blog, the Kluwer Arbitration Blog, the Kluwer Mediation Blog, Business & Financial Times (BFT), and the Investment Times Magazine.

Partner (Managing) - Angela Opoku – Bonsu

Angela began her career in Ghana as an Associate Lawyer, where she advised clients on corporate governance, due diligence, investment law, and contract drafting. Her practice emphasized providing clear, enforceable, and business-savvy legal solutions that supported both local and international clients.

She holds a Master of Laws (LL.M.) in Corporate & Commercial Law from the University of Ghana, a Barrister-at-Law (B.L.) qualification, and a Bachelor of Laws (LL.B.). She further holds a Master of Science in Management (MSM) degree from the University of North Florida in the United States of America, where she recognized with both the Coggin and the Lowell Salter Graduate Fellowships.

In the United States, Angela serves at the Florida Small Business Development Center (FSBDC), where she conducts market research, financial analysis, and industry studies that help entrepreneurs make informed decisions. This blend of legal training and business expertise uniquely positions her to bridge the gap between compliance, risk management, and enterprise growth.

A passionate advocate for entrepreneurship, business integrity, and social impact, Angela is committed to helping businesses navigate complex legal and regulatory environments while unlocking opportunities for sustainable success.

Integrating Mediation into Cross - Border Commercial Disputes: The Africa Focus

Far from being an import, mediation resonates deeply with African customary dispute resolution. In Ghana, for instance, community-based mechanisms led by chiefs, elders, or family heads have long emphasized conciliation over confrontation. These systems mirror the collaborative spirit of modern mediation but lack the institutional and legal scaffolding necessary for application in high-value cross-border transactions.
